Unit-Based Schwartz Rounds

After a year-long pilot process, we are thrilled to share that Unit-Based Schwartz Rounds \(UBSR\) is here! UBSR serves as a complement to the Schwartz Rounds®, bringing the program's support to the point of care at the time of need. It brings the important interprofessional discussions you're convening at Schwartz Rounds to colleagues who are unable to participate, or who simply need access to a different kind of conversation.

All healthcare members who have hosted Schwartz Rounds for at least one year are eligible to start the program. Fill out our short interest form to receive dates/times for our upcoming UBSR informational webinars.

Welcoming Casey Kudesia, Member Experience Advisor - East

The Schwartz Center is thrilled to welcome a new team member, Casey Kudesia, MA, as a Member Experience Advisor (MEA) for our members in the east.

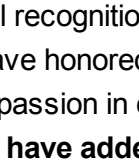

Casey brings a wealth of education, training, and leadership development expertise to this new role. In her previous organization, she led a range of training and organizational development initiatives.

Casey will be reaching out to her member sites over the next few weeks to introduce herself and set up a time to touch base with you and your Schwartz Rounds team. We encourage you to take full advantage of her guidance and support for your program.

National Compassionate Caregiver of the Year (NCCY)® Award

Nominate a compassionate caregiver or team by March 23, 2020

National Compassionate Caregiver of the Year Award

Nominations for the National Compassionate Caregiver of the Year Award are now open! The award is a national recognition program that elevates excellence in compassionate healthcare. Since 1999, we have honored outstanding healthcare professionals who display extraordinary devotion and compassion in caring for patients and families. This year, in addition to the individual NCCY Award, we have added a team category to highlight the many outstanding collaborative efforts that are unique to teams of compassionate caregivers. We will choose finalists and a recipient in each category.

We encourage you to nominate a healthcare professional or team by the March 23, 2020 deadline. We'd love to have a nominee from each of our healthcare member organizations!

Facilitation Workshops

Don't miss out on our first Facilitation Workshop of 2020! Join us for our full-day Schwartz Rounds® Facilitation Workshop.

Hosted by Lucile Salter Packard Children's Hospital at Stanford in Redwood City, CA.

Tuesday, March 17, 2020 – Schwartz Rounds Facilitation Workshop

During this session we will:

- Explore the neuroscience basis for compassion and why compassionate care is good not just for patients and families, but for caregivers too
- Participate in a Schwartz Rounds session led Schwartz Center CMO and expert facilitator Beth Lown, MD
- Further develop the ability to recognize and model the qualities and skills of a successful Schwartz Rounds facilitator
- Share and co-construct solutions to common Schwartz Rounds challenges
- Connect with compassion leaders from across the Schwartz Center member community

Note: Due to high demand and the format of our workshops, this program will be capped at the first 50 registered participants.

As a healthcare membership benefit, we offer Continuing Medical Education and Continuing Education Unit (CME & CEU) credits for our Facilitation Workshops. Continuing education credits will be provided at no additional cost to members. Should you have any accreditation questions, please contact Jasmine Mason at jasmine.mason@atriumhealth.org or 704-512-6005.

Cancellation requests must be received by March 10 for paid registrations; no refunds will be processed after that time.

Schwartz Center healthcare membership includes two free seats per Facilitation Workshop, additional participants may attend for a fee.

Office Hours Webinars

Start the new year by taking advantage of the opportunity to connect with Schwartz Center staff and other Schwartz Rounds® program leaders! We'll kick each Office Hours webinar off with a topic or one of your FAQs and then open the floor for discussion and questions. Have a topic you'd like to discuss? Make sure to include it when you sign up.

Upcoming webinars:

Thursday, May 21, 2020

3:00 – 4:00 PM EST

“Member Q&A Forum”

This dynamic hour-long conversation offers you the opportunity to connect with Schwartz Center staff and other Schwartz Rounds program leaders. Bring your Schwartz Rounds questions, challenges, and innovations and learn from us and from each other. We'll kick the conversation off with one of your FAQs, then we'll open the floor to your other questions and comments.
