Building the Evidence Base for Compassion: Measuring the Impact of Schwartz Rounds® and Beyond

Monday, Sept. 9, 11:15 am - 12:30 pm

Anyone who has attended Schwartz Rounds has experienced the ways in which these interprofessional conversations foster community and understanding. But how can we measure the value of compassion and the impact of Schwartz Rounds? During this session, participants will hear research data about the outcomes of Schwartz Rounds and explore evidence that compassion effects meaningful organizational change. Join a discussion about building the evidence base for compassion's impact on patients, healthcare professionals and staff, and healthcare organizations.

Panelists for this session are:

Beth A. Lown, MD
Chief Medical Officer, The
Schwartz Center for Compassionate Healthcare

Jill Maben OBE, PhD, MSc, BA
(Hons), RN, PGCE
Professor of Health Services
Research and Nursing, University of Surrey, UK

Colleen Manning, MA
Director of Research, Goodman
Research Group

Steve Trzeciak, MD, MPH
Chief of Medicine, Cooper
University Healthcare
